Chapter 17: The Truth

Ben is with Strick then the doctor came in and first said that the heavier bullet killed the old man. Then he said he found a buckshot in Madec's wrist. Finally, the thing that proved Ben innocent, the doctor pulled out the slingshot that Ben had used to protect himself against Madec. Then when Honduarak asked if it was he wanted to charge Madec with attempted murder and assault, Ben said "No" "I came in here to report an accident."

Literary Spotlight 1

The sheriff took the slingshot and said, “Where’d you get this, Doc?” “Out of the trash basket. In the emergency room. I saw Madec throw something away when he first came in...” page 218

This proves that Ben is innocent because the slingshot is real and Madec was trying to get rid of the evidence.

Literary Spotlight 2

“... So, will you testify to intent to commit murder and assault with a deadly weapon?” “No,” Ben said. “I came in here to report an accident.” page 220

This show how truthful Ben is, and that he doesn't want to get revenge on Madec for doing all these things to Ben. Even after Madec tried to pin everything on him and more, Ben still did the right thing by saying it was an accident.

Can anyone guess how tall the largest slingshot was? How many feet tall?

The largest slingshot to shoot was 14 ft and 11 inches and it was done in Norway.

The strongest slingshot ever shot produced 199 joules of energy. In comparison a 22lr pistol produces 159 joules.

Critical Review

My favorite part in this book is the end, when Ben reports the murder as an accident. After all the stuff Madec had done it would be easy to just say he did it all on purpose and get back at him for blaming it all on Ben and trying to kill him. Most people would have said Madec did it all on purpose if they were in this situation. But Ben didn't this I found this really cool that he did the right thing after all that.
